Thanks for the prompt response Matt

We would be grateful for a meaningful opportunity to engage on the substantive issues, which I think means we'd be looking for another couple of weeks to substantiate our experiences for the purposes of the briefing; and then also to maintain our ongoing contribution to whatever work comes after.

Let us know what's feasible in terms of ministers' expectations, and we'll do all we can to support that.

Ngā mihi

Annie

Mōrena Annie,

Many thanks for sharing the EPAs considered comments on this paper. We aim to work through these and get back to you shortly. If required, we can also look at pushing the delivery date of the briefing out to better consider feedback and better embed the EPAs experiences.

We will be in touch.
Ngā mihi,

Matt
