Hi Iain and Chloe

Please refer to Brad Tattersfield's (Parliamentary Press Sec to David Parker) comments below. Because a caretaker Government is in place the Ministry, rather than the Minister, will need to respond to this journalist. Iain and Macaela are the subject matter experts Ministerials, and I shall leave you all to it. It is a very interesting question...Please also note this is probably urgent as it was received yesterday when I had a days annual leave. Brad has sent it directly to me in the absence of other Private Secs being available at Parliament at present. I suggest you respond directly back to him.

Thanks
Steph

Ministry staff work flexibly by default. For me, this means I work either from home or in the Wellington Office between 8.30am – 5.30pm

Hi David
Sorry but you will have to go directly to MfE on this one, due to the Govt being in caretaker mode.
Cheers, Brad

Kia ora: Does MfE, or the minister, have any comment on ECan withdrawing its application for a declarations proceeding in the Environment Court, regarding the Rakaia water conservation order? (ENV-2023-CHC-007)

Please acknowledge receipt of this email. My deadline for responses is always the same day, if possible. All comments should be attributable to a named spokesperson.
