Kia ora Iain,

See below for the suggested response, 9\(2\)\(h\).

Typically we would attribute this to a Ministry for the Environment spokesperson rather than an individual (but we can put your name to it, if you would prefer).

We understand that the proceedings are still live and it is not appropriate for either the Ministry or the Minister to comment.

Ngā mihi,
Gerald

Brad any chance you or one of the comms team could prep a placeholder comment for me?
Just checking with Nadeine if it needs to come from her or James.

Hi Iain and Chloe

Please refer to Brad Tattersfield's (Parliamentary Press Sec to David Parker) comments below. Because a caretaker Government is in place the Ministry, rather than the Minister, will need to respond to this journalist. Iain and Macaela are the subject matter experts Ministerials, and I shall leave you all to it. It is a very interesting question...Please also note this is probably urgent as it was received yesterday when I had a days annual leave. Brad has sent it directly to me in the absence of other Private Secs being available at Parliament at present. I suggest you respond directly back to him.

Thanks
Steph

Hi David
Sorry but you will have to go directly to MfE on this one, due to the Govt being in caretaker mode.
Cheers, Brad

Kia ora: Does MfE, or the minister, have any comment on ECan withdrawing its application for a declarations proceeding in the Environment Court, regarding the Rakaia water conservation order? (ENV-2023-CHC-007)

Please acknowledge receipt of this email. My deadline for responses is always the same day, if possible. All comments should be attributable to a named spokesperson.
