I understand the Listed Project Advisory Group nominations are still a work in progress with Ministers, but I wondered whether the team is preparing any comms (bullet-points or a short email) that can be sent to people who agreed to be nominated but weren't selected? We are getting some questions from people and I imagine other agencies are too, so would be really helpful to have something to go back to them with after Ministers make their decisions and a rough idea of when we'll be able to follow-up with them, if possible?

Many thanks
