Hi Dale,

Thanks for the update. Just confirming that the Office doesn't require anything further from Officials.

Thanks

Subject: Classification Cabinet paper for Min Consultation - Policy decisions on targeted reform of emissions-related torts

Hi 9(2)(a)

As I mentioned earlier in the week, Justice has emailed to say that Ministerial consultation has begun on the Justice Cabinet paper that relates to the CCRA. The Cabinet paper is titled "Policy decisions on targeted reform of emissions-related torts" and seeks Cabinet policy approvals for the development of a statutory bar on emissions-related tort claims. Feedback is due by 14 April.

Becky had previously provided some high-level advice on the work to the MO in November (email attached) and some formal advice to the Minister in 2024 (attached in the email).

I understand Stephen and Jack also had a chat about it a couple of week ago.

Let me know if there is anything else you need from officials.

Regards
Dale
