Introduction

1. The Ministry for the Environment has prepared this report in consultation with the Office for Māori Crown Relations – Te Arawhiti and in accordance with section 17 of the Covid-19 Recovery (Fast-track Consenting) Act 2020 (the FTCA).
2. To satisfy obligations under section 6 of the FTCA, you must consider this report before you make any decision under section 24 of the FTCA regarding the application request to refer the Te Rere Hau Wind Farm: Aokautere Extension Project (project) to an expert consenting panel (panel).

Proposed project

3. The applicant (NZ Windfarms Limited) proposes to develop and expand the existing Te Rere Hau Wind Farm comprising several properties located at Forest Hill Road, Aokautere, Palmerston North region.
4. The project is to develop and expand the existing Te Rere Hau Wind Farm, by:
 - a. installing up to nine three-bladed turbines up to 162 metres high, at Forest Hill Road to the north of the existing wind farm
 - b. decommissioning eight existing turbines
 - c. upgrading and widening 10.5 kilometres of internal access roads
 - d. upgrading existing public roads, and
 - e. installing new infrastructure and structures ancillary to the wind farm operation.
5. A location map is in Attachment 1.

Essential information

6. The following information is required under section 17(3) of the FTCA for the project area.

Supporting information

Project details

7. The project site covers approximately 460-hectares of characteristically rural land. The site has access from an existing haul road through Te Rere Hau wind farm site, known as Vestas Road and from North Range Road.
8. The proposed extension is situated on the western side of the Tararua Ranges, among a group of existing wind farms at the northern end. Tararua Wind Farm is located immediately to the north and Turitea Wind Farm is approximately two kilometres to the south.
9. The project involves activities such as vegetation removal, earthworks, removal of existing turbines, constructing new turbines including foundations and building pads, upgrading existing roads, constructing new roads and culverts, constructing new infrastructure including hardstand areas, underground electrical and communication cables, substation and grid connection equipment.
10. The project layout is in Attachment 3.

Statutory matters relating to this report

11. No parts of the proposed project will occur in the coastal marine area, meaning:
 - a. pursuant to section 16(1) of the FTCA you are the sole party required to consider this report
 - b. the project is unaffected by the provisions of the Marine and Coastal Area (Takutai Moana) Act 2011 (MACAA) or any other Act pertaining to the grant of protected customary rights or customary marine title.
12. There are no court orders granted under the MACAA or another Act to consider in your referral decision for this project.¹

Iwi authorities

Methodology and information sources

13. This report must identify the relevant iwi authorities for the project, in accordance with section 17(3)(a) of the FTCA. Under section 7(1) of the FTCA, a relevant iwi authority for a referred project means an iwi authority whose area of interest includes the area in which a project will occur.
14. 'Area of interest' can mean different things depending on context and perspective and can be indicative (such as an area identified at the outset of Treaty settlement negotiations), formally agreed (such as in a deed of settlement or memorandum of understanding) or self-nominated. An area of interest can be difficult to define precisely on a map, particularly where a boundary that has been depicted on a small-scale map is scaled up and used precisely in relation to an individual site or property.
15. For the purpose of this report, we have considered information from the following sources as a starting point for identifying iwi areas of interest:
 - a. Te Arawhiti Internal Crown Asset Tracking Tool (i-Cat), an online database that records areas of interest associated with Treaty settlements and Treaty settlement negotiations
 - b. area of interest maps in signed Treaty settlement deeds or other Treaty settlement negotiation documents (including deeds of mandate)
 - c. the Iwi Areas of Interest viewer, an online application managed by the Ministry of Māori Development – Te Puni Kōkiri (TPK)
 - d. Te Kāhui Māngai (TKM), an online directory of iwi and Māori organisations maintained by TPK, which includes information on rohe (tribal areas) provided by those organisations.
16. Generally, the areas of interest shown on these databases for an iwi or group do not always completely align, and sometimes the differences can be significant. We carefully consider the reasons for such discrepancies, including the reliability or accuracy of the information shown and the local context and decision-making environment, before deciding which areas of interest we consider apply to a project under FTCA process.
17. The FTCA does not specifically define iwi authority but pursuant to section 7(2) of the FTCA, 'iwi authority' has the same meaning as in the Resource Management Act 1991

¹ Section 17(3)(e) of the FTCA requires this report to identify any court orders granted under the MACAA or another Act which recognise, in relation to the project area, customary marine title or protected customary rights.

(RMA): the authority which represents an iwi and which is recognised by that iwi as having authority to do so.

18. To identify iwi authorities associated with the identified areas of interest, we considered information from:
 - a. the sources noted above including the TKM online directory
 - b. Horizons Regional Council (HRC) and Palmerston North City Council (PNCC) as relevant local authorities.

Iwi authorities relevant to project

19. We have identified, via the information sources, the relevant iwi authorities for the project area, as:
 - a. Te Rūnanga o Toa Rangātira Incorporated, representing Ngāti Toa Rangātira iwi
 - b. Tanenuiarangi Manawatū Incorporated, representing Rangitāne o Manawatū iwi
 - c. Ngāti Kahungunu Iwi Incorporated representing Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-a-Rua iwi
 - d. Rangitāne o Tāmaki nui a Rua representing Rangitāne o Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua iwi
 - e. Te Runanga o Raukawa Incorporated, representing Ngāti Raukawa ki te Tonga iwi
20. We note in their invited comments, HRC identified all of the same iwi authorities and PNCC identified one.

Other iwi authorities, treaty settlement entities and parties which may have an interest in the project

21. We have not identified any 'other' party which may have an interest.

Treaty settlements and Treaty settlement entities

22. This report must identify the Treaty settlements that relate to the project area and relevant Treaty settlement entities, in accordance with sections 17(3)(b) and 17(3)(a) respectively. We use information relevant to the project area from the iCat online database and NZ Government Treaty settlements website, together with advice from the Office for Māori Crown Relations – Te Arawhiti.
23. Under the FTCA, a Treaty settlement includes both a Treaty settlement Act and a Treaty settlement deed which is signed by both the Crown and the representative Māori group.
24. The project site falls within the area of interest covered by Treaty settlements with the following iwi:
 - a. Ngāti Toa Rangātira – settlement act
 - b. Rangitāne o Manawatu – settlement act
 - c. Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua – settlement act
 - d. Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-a-Rua – settlement act
25. Ngāti Toa Rangātira Claims Settlement Act 2014 is the settlement of historical Treaty claims relating to the project area. The Act gives effect to certain provisions of the deed of settlement signed by Ngāti Toa Rangātira, Trustee of the Toa Rangātira Trust and the Crown on 7 December 2012 and amendment dated November 2013. Ngāti Toa

Rangātira deed of settlement documents are accessible on the NZ Government Treaty settlements website.

26. Rangitāne o Manawatu Claims Settlement Act 2016 gives effect to certain provisions of the deed of settlement signed by Rangitāne o Manawatu, the Trustees of the Rangitāne o Manawatu Settlement Trust and the Crown on 14 November 2015. Rangitāne o Manawatu deed of settlement documents are accessible on the NZ Government Treaty settlements website.
27. Rangitāne Tū Mai Rā \(Wairarapa Tamaki nui-ā-Rua\) Claims Settlement Act 2017 is a settlement of historical Treaty claims relating to the project area. The Act gives effect to certain provisions of the deed of settlement signed by Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua and the Crown on 20 March 2021. Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua deed of settlement documents are accessible on the NZ Government Treaty settlements website.
28. Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-a-Rua Claims Settlement Act 2022 is a settlement of historical Treaty claims relating to the project area. The Act gives effect to certain provisions of the deed of settlement signed by Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui ā Rua and the Crown on 29 October 2021. Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-a-Rua deed of settlement documents are accessible on the NZ Government Treaty settlements website.

Relevant Treaty settlement entities

Post-settlement governance entities

29. Under the FTCA, a Treaty settlement entity includes a post-settlement governance entity, defined as a body corporate or trustees of a trust established by a claimant group for receiving redress, or for participating in arrangements established under a Treaty settlement Act.
30. We have identified the following post-settlement governance entities associated with the Treaty settlements:
 - a. Toa Rangatira Trust² under the Ngati Toa Rangātira Claims Settlement Act 2014
 - b. Rangitāne o Manawatu Settlement Trust under the Rangitāne o Manawatu Claims Settlement Act 2016
 - c. Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-a-Rua Settlement Trust under the Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-a-Rua Claims Settlement Act 2022
 - d. Rangitāne Tū Mai Rā Trust under the Rangitāne Tū Mai Rā \(Wairarapa Tamaki nui-ā-Rua\) Claims Settlement Act 2017.
31. A post-settlement governance entity may exist ahead of finalisation of a deed of settlement and/or enactment of Treaty settlement legislation.
32. There are no post-settlement governance entities in this category that are relevant.

Other bodies recognised or established under a Treaty settlement Act

33. A Treaty settlement entity is also defined for the purposes of the FTCA as including a board, trust, committee, authority, or other body, recognised in or established under a Treaty settlement Act.

² Te Rūnanga o Toa Rangatira Incorporated is the trustee of this trust.

34. No such entity established by the claims settlement Acts noted above are relevant to the proposed project.³

Relevant principles and provisions of the Treaty settlements for:

Ngāti Toa Rangatira, Rangitāne o Manawatu, Rangitāne Tū Mai Rā (Wairarapa Tamaki nui-a-Rua) and Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-a-Rua

Crown acknowledgements and apologies

35. As part of all of the identified Treaty settlements, the Crown offers acknowledgements and an apology as part of Treaty settlement redress to atone for historical wrongs, restore honour, and begin the process of healing.

Relevant principles and provisions of the Ngāti Toa Rangatira Treaty settlement

36. The Crown recognises that a number of Ngati Toa Rangatira, including Te Rauparaha and Te Rangihaeata, signed Te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi in 1840. The Crown profoundly regrets that it has not always lived up to its obligations to Ngati Toa Rangatira under Te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi.
37. As part of the apology offered by the Crown to Ngāti Toa Rangatira, to their ancestors, and to their descendants in the Ngāti Toa Rangatira Claims Settlement Act 2014, the Crown unreservedly apologises for failing its obligations and for breaching Te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi and its principles which have hurt and caused prejudice to Ngati Toa Rangatira.
38. The Crown says it is deeply sorry for its actions that intentionally undermined the mana and rangatiratanga of leading Ngati Toa Rangatira chiefs, in particular, for its indefinite detention of Te Rauparaha, and deeply regrets it has failed, until now, to acknowledge this injustice in an appropriate manner.
39. The Crown profoundly regrets and apologises for leaving Ngati Toa Rangatira virtually landless and unable to access customary resources and significant sites.
40. The Crown deeply regrets the cumulative effect of its actions and omissions which severely damaged Ngati Toa Rangatira social and traditional tribal structures, their autonomy and ability to exercise customary rights and responsibilities, their capacity for economic and social development, and physical, cultural, and spiritual well-being.
41. Through the settlement and the apology, the Crown states it hopes the apology and settlement will mark the beginning of a new, positive and enduring relationship with Ngāti Toa Rangatira founded on mutual trust and co-operation and respect for Te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi and its principles.
42. Affording respect to the views of Ngāti Toa Rangatira iwi on resource management matters and enabling iwi to meaningfully participate as a Treaty partner in resource management decision-making within their takiwā/area of interest are important ways in which the Crown can give effect to these acknowledgements and apologies.

³ The Manawatu River Catchment Advisory Board was established by the Rangitāne o Manawatu Claims Settlement Act 2016, to provide advice to the Manawatu–Wanganui Regional Council (Horizons Regional Council) in relation to freshwater management issues concerning the Manawātū River catchment. Although the project site lies within the Manawātū River catchment, it is unlikely the Board would have a direct interest in the Te Rere Hau Wind Farm Repowering project, as any impact on the catchment is likely to be minor.

Relevant principles and provisions of the Rangitāne o Manawātū Treaty settlement

43. The Crown recognises the struggles of the ancestors of Rangitāne o Manawatu in pursuit of redress and justice for the Crown's wrongs and makes this apology to Rangitāne o Manawatu, to their ancestors, and to their descendants.
44. The Crown is deeply sorry that it has not always lived up to its obligations under the Treaty of Waitangi in its dealings with Rangitāne o Manawatu and unreservedly apologises to Rangitāne o Manawatu for its breaches of the Treaty of Waitangi and its principles.
45. The Crown sincerely apologises for the cumulative effect of its acts and omissions, which left Rangitāne o Manawatu virtually landless. The Crown greatly regrets that on a number of occasions it failed to protect Rangitāne o Manawatu interests when purchasing land in their rohe. By 1866 Rangitāne o Manawatu had been alienated from many of their traditional kainga, taonga, and wāhi tapu, and were left with insufficient reserves. Despite the efforts of Rangitāne o Manawatu to retain and reacquire these lands, many have been lost forever. The Crown is deeply remorseful about the lasting sense of grievance its acts and omissions have caused Rangitāne o Manawatu.
46. The Crown profoundly and deeply regrets that over the generations the Crown's breaches of the Treaty of Waitangi undermined the social and traditional structures of Rangitāne o Manawatu and compromised the autonomy and ability of Rangitāne o Manawatu to exercise its customary rights and responsibilities.
47. The Crown deeply regrets its failure to appropriately acknowledge the mana and rangatiratanga of Rangitāne o Manawatu. Through this apology and by this settlement, the Crown seeks to atone for its wrongs and begin the process of healing. The Crown looks forward to re-establishing its relationship with Rangitāne o Manawatu based on mutual trust, co-operation, and respect for the Treaty of Waitangi and its principles.

Relevant principles and provisions of the Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua iwi Treaty settlement

48. The Crown acknowledges that Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua did not sign te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi in 1840. Nevertheless, the Crown further acknowledges that the undertakings it made to Māori in te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi apply to Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua. The Crown hereby recognises the legitimacy of Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua grievances and historical claims.
49. The Crown acknowledges that as a Treaty partner Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua have honoured their obligations and responsibilities under te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi. The Crown acknowledges that the sense of grief and loss suffered by Ngāti Kahungunu as a result of the Crown's failings endures today.
50. The Crown further acknowledges that it has failed to deal with the longstanding grievances of Ngāti Kahungunu in an appropriate way and that recognition of these grievances is long overdue.
51. The Crown pays tribute to the struggles of Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua and your ancestors in pursuit of justice for the Crown's wrongs and especially to those who have not survived to see this settlement completed. To you, the people of Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua, to your tīpuna and to your mokopuna, the Crown offers this apology.

52. The Crown unreservedly apologises for not honouring its obligations to respect te tino rangatiratanga o Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua through repeated breaches of te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi and its principles. The Crown profoundly regrets the damage and hurt these breaches have caused to the hapū and whanau of Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua.
53. The Crown is deeply sorry that it began its relationship with Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua in 1845 by prejudging their guilt in a dispute with settlers and depriving Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua of tens of thousands of acres by forcing them to cede this land with threats of armed violence.
54. The Crown profoundly regrets that it threatened to end Pakeha settlement in Wairarapa and Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua unless your tīpuna sold their land to the Crown, giving up the pastoral leases they had negotiated with Pakeha which had provided Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua with income and trade benefits while retaining ownership of the land, thus undermining how you had been engaging with settlement on your own terms for a number of years.
55. The Crown is deeply sorry it often failed to negotiate in good faith and actively protect your interests when purchasing land in Wairarapa and Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua. Instead of the social, economic and material benefits Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua were led to expect from agreements with the Crown, you have been left virtually landless in your own rohe and many of the lands you have retained are uneconomic and landlocked. The Crown is sorry that this prejudice has been exacerbated by its many public works takings made without consulting Ngāti Kahungunu, and without regard for the wellbeing of Ngāti Kahungunu communities. The Crown apologises for these failures which have contributed to your cultural, social and economic marginalisation.
56. The Crown also profoundly regrets the harm to Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua caused by its failure to protect your tribal structures after the native land legislation had individualised your previously tribal land tenure. The Crown wholeheartedly apologises for not upholding the spirit of your tuku rangatira of Wairarapa Moana in 1896. You gave this great taonga to the Crown to end dispute and ensure its protection, and the Crown did not live up to its promises or your expectations. Instead your precious lakes were degraded, the promised reserves sold to others, your people placed on lands hundreds of kilometres from their whanaunga in the rohe of other iwi, and those lands were reduced by public works takings.
57. The Crown is deeply humbled that throughout its relationship with the Crown, Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua has acted honourably in the face of great injustice. The actions of your rangatira ensured there was lasting peace in Wairarapa and Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua. The Crown pays tribute to your leading role in Kotahitanga, and your honourable interaction with the Crown which it has not always reciprocated.
58. Through this apology and settlement the Crown seeks to atone for these wrongs, begin the process of healing, and restore its tarnished honour. The Crown looks forward to forging a renewed and enduring relationship with the people of Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua that is grounded in mutual trust, co-operation, and respect for te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi and its principles.

Relevant principles and provisions of the Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua iwi Treaty settlement

59. The Crown recognises the efforts of the ancestors of Rangitāne in pursuit of redress and justice for the Crown's wrongs, and offers this apology to Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua, to their ancestors and to their descendants.
60. The Crown is deeply sorry for its many breaches of te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi and its principles, and for the effect that these breaches have caused to generations of Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua.
61. The Crown sincerely regrets that on a number of occasions it failed to negotiate in good faith and actively protect Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua interests when purchasing land in their takiwā. The Crown profoundly regrets that it failed to actively protect the tribal structures of Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua after it promoted native land legislation which individualised their previously tribal land tenure.
62. The Crown deeply regrets that Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua did not experience the prosperity the Crown led them to expect when it pressured them to sell large areas of land before 1865. The Crown sincerely apologises that it failed in its Treaty duty to protect them from being left virtually landless, and they have for too long experienced socio-economic deprivation and disadvantage.
63. The Crown deeply regrets the prejudice Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua have suffered from the degradation of lakes and rivers, the felling of Te Tapere-nui-o-Whātonga (the Seventy Mile Bush), and the loss of taonga such as the huia.
64. The Crown regrets that its former limited recognition of Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua contributed to the challenges experienced by Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua in maintaining a distinct iwi presence from 1840 to the present. The Crown unreservedly apologises for not respecting the rangatiratanga of Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua and for not having honoured its obligations to Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua under te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi.
65. Through this settlement and this apology, the Crown seeks to restore its honour and atone for its wrongs to the whānau and hapū of Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua by easing the burden of grievance that has been carried for generations. The Crown looks forward to developing a new relationship with Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua that has mutual trust and respect for te Tiriti/the Treaty and its principles as its foundation.

Redress within the Treaty settlements

Cultural redress

66. The Rangitāne o Manawatu deed of settlement contains statements of the particular cultural, spiritual, historical and traditional association that each iwi respectively has with a number of sites, including the Manawātū River and its tributaries. These include:

The Manawatu River is of immense historical, cultural, spiritual and traditional significance to Rangitāne o Manawatu. The Manawatu River was the main route for travel and communication for Rangitāne o Manawatu with settlements along the margins of the river.

The most significant quality that flows through the Manawatu River is its mauri which binds all the physical, traditional and spiritual elements of all things together, generating, nurturing and upholding all life. That mauri is the most crucial element that binds Rangitāne o Manawatu with the Manawatu River, and that relationship has consisted for over seven hundred years of unbroken occupation.

67. The Crown's formal acknowledgement of the statements of association are recognised in statutory acknowledgements over specified areas that form part of the Rangitāne o Manawatu Treaty settlement. These include the Manawātū River and its tributaries, which covers a large area that spans parts of the Ruahine and Tararua Ranges and includes the project site.
68. The Rangitāne o Manawatu Settlement Trust or any member of the iwi can cite statutory acknowledgements as evidence of their association with the area. The relevant councils, the Environment Court and Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga must have regard to them, and councils must forward summaries of resource consent applications it receives for activities within, adjacent to or directly affecting statutory areas (or notices served on the council under section 145(10) of the RMA) to the Trust.
69. We note that statutory acknowledgments are not indications of exclusive interest in a site, and sites subject to statutory acknowledgments may also hold importance for other iwi.

Resource management matters

70. Affording respect to the views of iwi on resource management matters and enabling iwi to meaningfully participate as a Treaty partner in resource management decision-making within their takiwā/area of interest are important ways in which the Crown can give effect to these acknowledgements and apologies.

Other redress of the Treaty settlement

71. No other specific cultural or commercial redress provided by any of the settlements would be directly affected by the project, and none of the co-governance or co-management processes established in the settlements would affect decision-making under the RMA for the project.
72. As a general principle, an absence of specific settlement redress does not indicate the absence of an iwi cultural association with ancestral lands, sites, wāhi tapu or other taonga within an area. Local tangata whenua and their representatives would be best placed to advise on such matters in the first instance.
73. Importantly, cultural associations with ancestral lands, water, sites, wāhi tapu, and other taonga – regardless of whether or not they are specifically identified in a Treaty settlement – are deemed to be matters of national importance that must be recognised and provided for in decision-making under Part 2 section 6(e) of the RMA.

Current negotiation mandates and settlement negotiations

74. There are no recognised mandates for negotiation of any further historical Treaty claims, or any current or anticipated negotiations for settlement of historical Treaty claims, affecting the proposed project site. We note Ngāti Raukawa ki te Tonga is yet to enter negotiations but does have a relevant iwi authority.

Details in this report affect certain provisions of the FTCA

Notices of referral decisions

75. Under section 25 of the FTCA, you must give notice of the decisions made on an application for referral of a project to a panel, and the reasons for your decisions, to the applicant and anyone invited to comment under section 21 of the FTCA.
76. You did not invite comment on the referral application from iwi authorities or other Māori groups. However, if you decide to refer this project to a panel, the notice of decisions and associated reasons must be given to:
 - a. the relevant iwi authorities and Treaty settlement entities identified in this report
 - b. any other iwi authorities or Treaty settlement entities you consider have an interest in the matter
 - c. any group that is or party to either a joint management agreement or Mana Whakahono ā Rohe under the RMA that relates to the project area.
77. We have identified five relevant iwi authorities and four relevant Treaty settlement entities for receipt of the notice of decisions. Contact details are in Attachment 2.
78. We have not identified any 'other' party who may have an interest in the project.
79. There are no relevant joint management agreements or Mana Whakahono ā Rohe to consider.
80. The Associate Minister for Treaty of Waitangi Negotiations has requested that you copy the notice of decisions and a copy of the referral application to the iwi authority and the post-settlement governance entity Ngā Kaitiaki o Ngāti Kauwhata (an entity that provides a range of services, including resource consenting, in support of Ngāti Kauwhata, which is a hapū of Ngāti Raukawa ki te Tonga).
81. If you decide to refer the project, we note provision is already made for Ngā Kaitiaki o Ngāti Kauwhata to receive the notice of decisions via their identification as a relevant 'other' party in this report. Should you agree to the Minister's request in relation to this party, contact details are in Attachment 2.
82. The Minister for Māori Crown Relations: Te Arawhiti has requested that you provide Rangitāne o Tamaki nui-a-Rua, Rangitāne Tū Mai Rā Trust and Tanenuiarangi Manawatū Incorporated with a copy of the referral application and notice of decisions. Should you agree to the Minister's request, we note provision is already made for these parties to receive the notice of decisions via their identification as a relevant representative body in this report.

Expert consenting panel membership and invitation to comment

83. If a project is referred to a panel, the appointed panel must include one person nominated by the relevant iwi authorities under clause 3(2)(b) of Schedule 5 of the FTCA.
84. In the event iwi authorities nominate more than one person, the panel convener must decide which nominee to appoint. The panel convener has discretion to increase the panel membership to accommodate the matters specified in clauses 3(6)(a) – 3(6)(e) of Schedule 5 of the FTCA, which include matters unique to any relevant Treaty settlement Act.

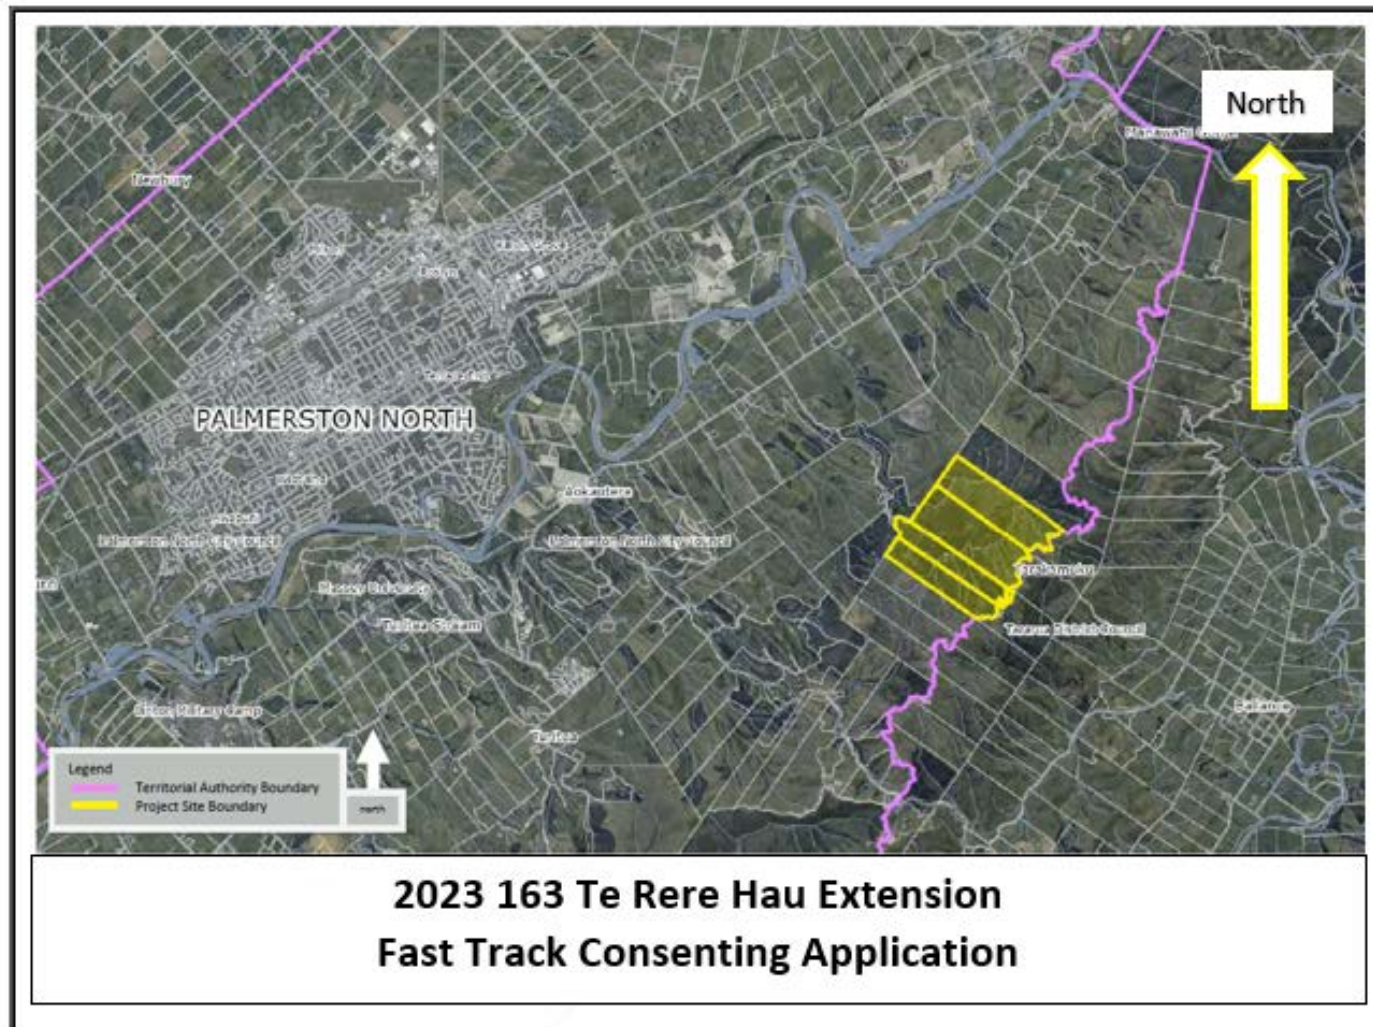

85. A panel must invite comments on a resource consent application or notice of requirement for a referred project from the parties listed in clause 17(6) of Schedule 6 of the FTCA. This includes:
- a. the relevant iwi authorities, including those identified in this report
 - b. a Treaty settlement entity relevant to the referred project, including an entity that has an interest under a Treaty settlement in an area where a referred project is to occur, and an entity identified in this report
 - c. any applicant group under the MACAA identified in the report obtained under section 17(1).
86. We have identified five relevant iwi authorities and four relevant Treaty settlement entities for the proposed project, from whom a panel must invite comment if you decide to refer the project.
87. We have not identified any 'other' party who may have an interest in the project.
88. A panel may also invite comments from any other person it considers appropriate.
89. The Minister for Māori Crown Relations: Te Arawhiti has requested that you direct a panel to invite comment from Rangitāne o Tamaki nui-a-Rua, Rangitāne Tū Mai Rā Trust and Tanenuiarangi Manawatū Incorporated. No direction is needed as provision is already made for a panel to invite comment via their identification as a relevant representative bodies in this report.

Provision of cultural impact assessment

90. Any resource consent application submitted to a panel for determination must include a cultural impact assessment prepared by or on behalf of the relevant iwi authorities, or a statement of any reasons given by the relevant iwi authorities for not providing that assessment.⁴ The Environmental Protection Authority which provides support services to a panel, will not confirm an application as complete and ready for consideration by a panel until this requirement is satisfied.
91. There is more than one relevant iwi authority. The project applicant will need to engage with each to determine their requirements for a cultural impact assessment, including whether they wish to prepare one individually or jointly, or whether they may wish to defer to another iwi in respect of the matter. Relevant iwi authorities are listed in Attachment 2.

⁴ Clause 9(5), 13(1)(k) and 13(1)(l) of Schedule 6 of the FTCA.
