Appendix 3: Consultation & Engagement

Person / Organisation	Consultation to Date	Influence on Project
Relevant Local Authorities	No consultation has been undertaken to date with the Far North District Council and Northland Regional Council specific to the project. In this context, the proposal for aquaculture would be a prohibited activity under the Northland Regional Council planning framework. Therefore, no direct consultation has been undertaken as the project would not be feasible except for the Fast Track Process. It is expected that if approved, very detailed discussions would be undertaken with the Northland Regional Council. In the future, land-based development associated with the aquaculture may also require consents from the Far North District Council. Consultation with this party can occur when developing these projects that supplement the overall aquaculture proposal.	No influence on the project to date.

Relevant Iwi Authorities	The other relevant iwi authority has been briefed on the proposal.	No influence on the project to date.
Protected Customary Rights Groups	Nil – none in project area.	No influence on the project to date.
Applicants under the Marine and Coastal [Takutai Moana] Act 2011	A full list of the applicants is provided as part of the application. Kahukuraariki Trust is one of those applicants. No formal consultation has been undertaken with any other applicants to date, but we understand that as part of the Fast Track Process, that these parties should be informed, and their opinions sought in relation to the project.	No influence on the project to date except that Kahukuraariki Trust support the project as promoted.
Nga Hapu o Nga Poroua	No consultation undertaken as these hapū are not within Northland.	No influence on the project to date.
Any person with a registered interest in land that may need to be acquired under the Public Works Act 1981	Nil	No influence on the project to date.
