

Geoff Cawson

Geoff is a hands-on director and shareholder of Shackleton Developments and Various other associated Property Entities in Auckland New Zealand, currently delivering residential projects ranging from $10M-$50M NZD.

Geoff has been involved in property for over 20 years with extensive residential and commercial development experience in New Zealand and the United Kingdom. Geoff holds a bachelor's degree in Property from Auckland University and a Master of Science (Merit) in Real Estate Development from Westminster University in London, United Kingdom.

Geoff is also a qualified New Zealand Boatbuilder having served a 10,000-hour boatbuilding apprenticeship.

With a background in project management and design & build construction and commercial mixed use in Europe and New Zealand, Geoff has developed thorough understanding of the development process abroad and in New Zealand and understands the importance of clear communications, risk management and managing stakeholder interests.

More recently Geoff has been involved with regeneration projects in East Auckland, New Zealand overseeing the development and delivery of large residential projects ranging from 20 to 100 lots for Classic Developments Circa NZD$10-100m.

RECENT WORK

The Rise, St Heliers

Whakatipu Street Pt Chevalier

Smale Street, Pt Chevalier

Te Atatu Road, Te Atatu

Peachgrove, Te Atatu

Luke Taylor

Luke Taylor is a Senior Managing Director and Executive Committee Member of Stonepeak Partners, a US Based $39bn private equity firm.

He has invested across multiple businesses and sat on multiple company boards in his career. Prior to Stonepeak, Luke was a Senior Vice President with Macquarie Group.

Born and Raised in New Zealand, Luke has a Bachelor of Commerce and Master of Business (Distinction) from the University of Otago.

Luke resides in Austin, Texas with his wife and family.

